THE situation is convenient to fishing and fowling, affords a very good and extensive ker, by trade a tailor, about 5 feet 6 inches high, fair complexion, thin yellow hair, talks fast and in of breeches of the same cloth, an Irish linen shirt, a hard occasioned by chopping with the ax; it is pro-

The SHIP ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 10, 1774.
CAPTAIN EDEN takes this Method of informing his Friends in Patuxent, that, in compliance with the request of many of them, he intends to carry her round to Benedict next month, in order to remove the apprehensions they seemed to have,
of too long a water carriage for their tobacco in small craft; and begs that, in order to prevent any unnecessary delays, those whom he may not have an opportunity of seeing, or applying to, will leave their notes for the tobacco intended for him with the inspectors of the different warehouses; and also any orders for goods they may want from England, by the return of the ship, in the latter part of the summer. Insurance is ordered; and shall be inserted in the bills of lading of those who do not desire to the contrary.

His correspondents, in other parts of the province, who are desirous of getting their tobacco home by this opportunity to a very early market, are requested to give him timely notice, when and where it is ready, in order that he may send craft.
But if it should be convenient for them to send it by their own vessels, or to hire any upon the spot, he will acknowledge their taking that trouble as an additional favour, and will pay the usual freights on the delivery thereof on board the ship at Annapolis, where he will continue 3 or 4 weeks from this date, or afterwards in Patuxent.

The accounts of sales for the last voyage are daily expected.

JUST PUBLISHED,

THE American Register and Calendar for 1774.

LAND TO BE SOLD.
TWO tracts of land at the mouth of Cornecocheague, containing five hundred thirty-three acres and three quarters of an acre, which I purchased at the sale of the manor, whereon Mr. Minor keeps public house, and where my brother George lived; whereon is a house two storie high with brick chimneys, three fire rooms below and three above, with cellars, barns, out-houses, &c. a good meadow, and plenty of timber to support it for many, many years. But it is so well known to every Jersey or Pennsylvania man, who ever went to the southward to look out for land for his children, that there is no occasion to say one word in praise of it. Whoever buys it shall have possession of it next fall, time enough to put a crop of winter grain in the ground.

DAVID ROSS.

Baltimore-Town, Jan. 10, 1774.
ADVERTISEMENT have from time to time been published, requiring all persons indebted to Mess. John Stewart and Campbell of London, merchants, to make payment thereof, notwithstanding which many people have neglected settling their accounts: the death of Mr. John Stewart making it now absolutely necessary that all balances due the partnership should be settled without delay, those who neglect doing so may depend on being sued without farther notice.

Attendance is given at Baltimore-Town to settle for dealings with David Ross, Alexander Stewart, Stewart and Lux, William Lux, William Russell, Russell and Ridley, with Matthew Ridley, or on accounts current, and it is hoped none who wish to avoid trouble will delay settling.

MATTHEW RIDLEY.
Those who have settled their bonds and not taken them up are desired to call for them immediately.

of the same, new buckskin breeches, ribbed worsted stockings, and silver buckles; he wears his own hair which is curled at the ears and clubbed behind, is about five feet nine inches high, slim made, pitted with the small-pox. The indenture he signed in London was given up to him and a discharge, after which he executed another indenture, by which he was to be allowed in consideration of his former service, wages after the rate of ten shillings per week till the expiration of his time, which would have been in September next: masters of vessels are requested not to carry him out of the country; and whoever takes up and secures the said servant, shall receive five pounds reward, and if brought home reasonable charges.
